Max Rodenbeck's Cairo: The City Victorious examines the cyclical nature of Cairo and how it oscillates between vibrant life and supposed ashes, like a phoenix: "It was this resilient fluidity, above all, that I wanted to explain" (xvi). While Rodenbeck stresses that the main focal point is Cairo's cyclical nature instead of solely being an exhaustive history of the city, Rodenbeck still manages to provide a chronicle of Cairo from its mythical and profane origins to the contemporary setting of w
