Psychology and Personal Growth by Nelson Goud
Personal growth is a process of psychological maturation that involves learning from the mistakes we made and developing new strategies to get to know one another better and adapt better to the world. Personal development requires a high degree of awareness, the ability to look within oneself. Positive psychology is responsible for studying the best personal growth techniques in order to achieve a state of wellbeing that will give us happiness.

Personal Growth & Self-Actualization Self-Actualization is a popular psychology term that means: the process of " realiz [ing] fully one ' s potential. " I love this definition, for it ' s basically the point of personal growth—to realize our full potential, to self-actualize. However, people tend to misunderstand this term.
