Expectation and Mastery – Continuing the Legacy of Howard University " this was the title of this weeks lecture by Dr. Alvin Thorton. We were asked to redefine our liberty, happiness, and most focused on redefining our citizenship. When I heard this question, I really had to think to myself and wonder what he meant.

Reflections and Thoughts: The Eloquence of the scribes

A scribe is a person who documents information by writing the data. The status of the scribe diminished after the invention of printers, but it is still an important position today. Howard University is built on the legacy and determination of scribes. The beginning of Howard started with General Olive Otis Howard.

Wednesday's lecture by Dr. Benjamin was titled the eloquence of the scribes. A scribe by definition is and official or public secretary or clerk. It can also be interpreted as someone serving as copyists, editors, teachers, jurists, or simply a writer. Formerly scribes were in charge of writing books and the general copying of things; however ...
