The New Calvinism is the subject of Jeremy Walker's new book The New Calvinism Considered: A Personal and Pastoral Assessment. Behind that rather austere title is a very accessible book that does exactly what the title claims: it shines a spotlight on this theological movement and considers where it has come from, what it has accomplished and where it may be going in the future.

The New Calvinism movement is characterised by a careless attitude towards God's moral law. A common assertion is that Christians are no longer under God's law, but under God's grace. It follows that the Christian life is not to be governed by a set of rules, or a set of commands, or a list of do's and don'ts, for Christ's grace has set us free.
