When I get to 12D and place my bag in the carry-on space, a woman in her seventies is standing at 12B holding up her boarding pass for me to inspect. She's 12E, my neighbor, I explain as I wave her over. She asks me to move her bag from the left side of the...

Helpful | The Nice Thing About Strangers

I'm going through notebooks from my first trip to Bosnia-Hercegovina so I can use some of it in a novel I'm trying to finish. There's something very humbling about re-reading my detailed record of every mistake and worry from that trip. It shows me how much has changed and how much I have stayed the same. Nonetheless, I have...
